

FILM INVITATION

– “TORN FROM THE FLAG” to be shown in MINNEAPOLIS / ST. PAUL

You are invited to the Minnesota premiere of Torn from the Flag, an award-winning, feature-length, English-language documentary film about the fall of communism and the significant global effects of the 1956 Hungarian Revolution. Because of the successful Hollywood premiere, the project has been selected for the Minneapolis / St. Paul International Film Festival.

Screening time: Sunday, April 20, at 5:30 pm

St. Anthony Main Cinemas
219 Main Street SE
Minneapolis, MN 55414

After the screening you will have the chance to vote for the film to receive an audience award and meet with filmmaker Klaudia Kovács! Order your tickets at www.mspfilmfest.org

Oscar winner Vilmos Zsigmond and multi-award winner László Kovács, both Hollywood legends, were the Executive Producers; László Kovács was also the Director of Photography.

This powerful, bold, thought-provoking film features, in archive footage or in person, Dr. Henry Kissinger, Otto von Habsburg, Ronald Reagan, Mikhail Gorbachev, George Vassiliou, Árpád Göncz, Gyula Horn, János Berecz and Imre Pozsgay.

In Los Angeles, Torn from the Flag was screened in the "Milestones" section of the American Film Institute Festival along with Ingmar Bergman's and Michelangelo Antonioni's films.

The critiques of Torn from the Flag are outstanding:

"...a...documentary thriller... Superb." — Chuck Wilson, LA WEEKLY

"...the best documentary film on the 1956 Hungarian revolution..." — Istvan Deak, Seth Low Professor Emeritus of History, Columbia University

"... a lively piece of history, put together with a good deal of technical skill as well as unmistakable passion..." — Stephen Farber, Hollywood Reporter

"... It chains you to your seat and helps us understand what freedom truly means."
— Leslie Eloed, American Hungarian Journal

"One of the "Most Important Cultural Events..." — Magyar Nemzet
